Self Fee Most Common Fees Schedule

Because Dr. Loftus would rather run a different kind of practice, he no longer accepts any insurance. He does bill insurances where the patients have out of network benefits. This allows him to spend more times with patients and to be completely transparent regarding costs. You may use your Health Savings Account and Flexible Spending Account money for our services. Because hyperhidrosis varies with location and dosing, please call for most current prices.

Fee Schedule (Most Common Services<sup>1</sup>)

DESCRIPTION	COST AFTER SAME DAY PAYMENT DISCOUNT <sup>2</sup>
New patient visit	$260
Follow-up visit	$160
Pericranial Nerve Blocks	$300
SPG Block with Allevio Device	$250
Botox® for Migraine (Admin Fee) <sup>3</sup>	$300

IV Magnesium Treatment	$105
Most Common IV Rescue Therapy (DHE, Magnesium & Reglan)	$328
Blood Draw Fee <sup>5</sup>	$20

<sup>1</sup> This list is not inclusive of every charge billed by Bellaire Neurology. If you have a question about a particular service, then please send a portal message to "Billing Questions" or call our office.

<sup>2</sup> We offer a 15% "same day payment discount". These fees reflect the cost after the discount has been applied. It is our policy to collect for services the day they are rendered. If payment is not made on the day services are rendered then the 15% discount will not be applied.

<sup>3</sup> This is the fee to only inject the Botox for Chronic Migraine. Botox injections for other conditions have different fees. The Botox will be obtained from your Medicare Part D Plan. If Bellaire Neurology supplies the Botox the cost will be substantially higher.

<sup>4</sup> This is the fee to inject the Botox and have an office visit on the same day.

<sup>5</sup> As a convenience to you, we can draw your blood for lab tests at our office and send the specimen to Quest Diagnostics. Quest Diagnostics will bill Medicare/Tricare for lab testing ordered by Dr. Loftus so the lab testing itself will be covered by Medicare. If you wish to save the $20 fee, then you may also go to any Quest Diagnostics service center.
